Fiction. Women's Studies. Short Stories. Beginning with a story of an ex sex-worker drifting through a small rural town in the south, and ending with a young woman's wedding night, who learns from her new husband what it takes to kill a man, Nash writes across the complications of working class women, rendering their desires with visceral prose and psychologically dissecting the fundamental root that threads her work: craving and the conflicts within.

Luke 15:7 tells us that the whole heaven rejoices when one soul is won. It is the work of the shepherd to care for the souls of the Lord. They are tasked to watch over them, discipline them, teach them, guide them, etc. For this reason, shepherds are the heart beat of the Lord. The Lord Jesus Christ Himself is called the "Good Shepherd". To shepherd a soul is the greatest work and greatest miracle here on earth and those who do it faithfully will have a great reward. The salvation of a soul is precious in the sight of God and is the only event that is able to move the entire heavenly host to rejoice and celebrate the blood and the done work of the cross. Most importantly, shepherds must follow the Chief Shepherd-Jesus Christ-to lay down their lives. They must first follow Him and then teach the congregation to follow as well, according to the will of God.
