How we become ill and the causes of illness are generally a mystery to most people. Researchers now tell us that 70% to 80% of all illnesses seen by medical doctors are either caused by or made worse by stress. The full story of those Stress-Related Disorders, illnesses produced by stress, are now examines and illuminated by Dr's Allen and Lisa Robyn Lawrence. You must read this book if you, or someone you know: Experience symptoms which you believe indicate that you are becoming ill and want to stop the illness process. Are already ill and are not getting the results you want from your doctor. Are well and want to either prevent becoming ill in the future or learn how you can prevent illness before it can set in. Are already ill and want to learn to work with your body's natural healing ability without expensive, painful or dangerous medical treatments. The Dr's Lawrence take you on step-by-step journey illustrating the role you mind, your body and your spirit play in creating and healing illness. When Your Body Talks, Listen! Will teach you how to protect yourself from Stress-Related Disorders, and the detrimental short and long-term effects from them.

Everything you need to know to look after yourself to bring about and maintain perfect health, prosperity, wealth, happiness, quality of life and longevity. It reveals that we are, without realising, not doing enough or the right things to protect our health and prosperity which is equally extremely damaging to nature, wildlife, oceans, sea-life, fresh springs, waterways and air, and us. The Book by Linde utilises new and ancient knowledge from around the world, over the millennia identifying what changes we need to make to enhance every aspect of our lives with simple solutions for almost every situation. Mrs Lambsbottom wakes up one morning and accidentally douses a mouse with milk, unwittingly creating the most ferocious of creatures. She decides to rid her home of the terrible beast but Mrs Lambsbottom is not the most mentally stable of characters. Neither is the cat that she brings home from 'Meow's Cat Shelter for the criminally insane'. All the ingredients mix together ensuring a stupendously silly story satisfyingly stuffed with suitable story related things and, er, stuff. Packed full of funny pieces of incredibly relevant information, although perhaps not always factual, The Most Ferocious of Creatures will have you smiling.

Ghent-Fuller offers insights into emotional reactions and practical suggestions based on deep understanding of the way people with dementia view many situations. She explains the loss of various types of memory and other thinking processes, and describes how these losses affect the day to day life of people with dementia, their understanding of the world around them and their personal situations.

Surviving Cancer begins with the premise that you are the key magic ingredient in any healing. This how-to, inspirational and practical little volume helps the cancer patient, his care-givers, family and friends learn how to deal with the first news of the diagnosis, with choosing one's doctors or practitioners, with utilizing the healing power of pleasure and the help of friends and family, and with creating a life during treatment: even if terminally ill and especially after one is in remission.
