The idea behind First Thrills was to showcase new talent in the thriller genre and use the internationally recognised authors to attract the readership. Six years after First Thrills was first published, the bestselling authors continue to be successful, but sadly none of the featured rookie authors have really gone on to better things.

Thirty-seven writers with one rule: each story must be told in the first person. Catalyst and Tea bring together what can only be described as a dream cast of literature's avant-garde whose stories offer scary, funny, chaotic, moving, poignant, and intimate glimpses into lives on the fringe.

Lillian Lil Hardin was a pioneer for women in jazz. After studying at Fisk University, the Chicago College of Music, and the New York College of Music, Lil joined Sugar Johnny's Creole Orchestra and then moved on to Freddie Keppard's Original Creole Orchestra. In the 1920's Lil began playing in King Oliver's world-famous Creole Jazz Band, becoming the first female jazz musician of renown. She was well-established in Chicago as a pianist, composer, arranger, and bandleader before she met and married Louis Armstrong in 1924. She was the only member of Armstrong's group that could read music. Based on extensive research, Dickerson's stunning biography is the first to examine this musical iconoclast's life and career.
