Teoría y experiencia es el fruto de diez años de docencia de su autor en la materia, y de los aportes de sus estudiantes a través de sus trabajos de graduación. Este libro demuestra que la disciplina puede ser pensada y practicada en función de la sociedad y no sólo de un grupo minoritario de consumidores de altos ingresos.

Using their teaching, research and action to build a more just society. Mary Romero, Professor of Justice Studies and Social Inquiry, Arizona State University This volume superbly conceptualises and contextualises social justice in and for our global age. The stellar cast of sociologists connect concepts to practices and outline the challenges we face, as well as providing necessary responses. Gurminder K Bhabra, Professor of Postcolonial and Decolonial Studies, University of Sussex This impressive collection reinvigorates the criticality of the social in sociology. It reconceptualises social justice as a centre of sociological action. The book reminds us that it is not enough for sociology to offer insights, it must take the lead in championing change at the global, national, and local levels. Maggie Walter, Professor of Sociology, University of Tasmania

An excellent set of chapters bringing to the fore new perspectives on the social injustices and inequalities facing a world in crisis. The book is theoretically and empirically rigorous and integrates compelling scenarios from various parts of the world. Kammila Naidoo, Professor of Sociology, University of Johannesburg

Sociology and Social Justice contributes to a much-needed conversation on the relevance and necessity for sociologists to play an influential role in (ECLAC) in respect of industrial policy design and technical assistance for the Governments of two Central American countries: El Salvador and Guatemala. It adopts a value chain approach to identify in detail the restrictions facing these chains, both as a whole and at each of their links. Strategies aimed at strengthening value chains are participatory (public-private) and act as a driver of structural change by boosting productivity and value added, especially among small producers.
