A clever and steamy queer romantic comedy about taking chances and accepting love—with all its complications—by debut author Ashley Herring Blake. Delilah Green swore she would never go back to Bright Falls—nothing is there for her but memories of a lonely childhood where she was little more than a burden to her cold and distant stepfamily. Her life is in New York, with her photography career finally gaining steam and her bed never empty. Sure, it ' s a different woman every night, but that ' s just fine with her. When Delilah ' s estranged stepsister, Astrid, pressures her into photographing her wedding with a guilt trip and a five-figure check, Delilah finds herself back in the godforsaken town that she used to call home. She plans to breeze in and out, but then she sees Claire Sutherland, one of Astrid ' s

Having raised her eleven-year-old daughter mostly on her own while dealing with her unreliable ex and running a bookstore, Claire Sutherland depends upon a life without surprises. And Delilah Green is an unwelcome surprise...at first. Though they ' ve known each other for years, they don ' t really know each other—so Claire is unsettled when Delilah figures out exactly what buttons to push. When they ' re forced together during a gauntlet of wedding preparations—including a plot to save Astrid from her horrible fiancé—Claire isn ' t sure she has the strength to resist Delilah ' s charms. Even worse, she ' s starting to think she doesn ' t want to...

The FAVORS Glossary is a list of popular feedback comments professors write within the margins of student essays. The glossary grows from a primary concern for college students who struggle with the process of revising academic papers and applying margin comments during the revision process. It serves as a comprehensive solution to bridge the communication gap between English professors and students of writing and research papers. It answers the question, "What does my professor mean by this?" Written by Regina Y. Favors, CEO and Chief Instructional Designer of Favors Learning Center, The FAVORS Glossary defines more than 175 margin comments. Example terms include "Audience," "Awkward," "Cliche," "Lacks a Clear Argument," "Be Specific," and "Misquoting the Evidence." The explanations for each comment derive from both undergraduate and graduate papers written by the author. By sifting through past academic papers written for English classes, Ms. Favors was able to extract comments from over 100 one-page responses, five-page papers, longer essays, and take-home and in-class final exams. The FAVORS Glossary encourages a conversational, student-friendly tone. At the same time, the tone doesn't hinder professors from using it as lecture material. The glossary is much similar to a university English department's drop-in writing tutor.
