Jamila est coupée en deux : sa peau, ses yeux, ses cheveux sont du Maroc, mais c'est à Bruxelles qu'elle vit, qu'elle étudie, et que son cœur bat. Impossible de partager sa difficulté d'être avec ses parents. Son seul confident est son journal intime. Jamila lui dévoile ses peines, ses joies, ses conflits avec son père, son envie de sortir; elle lui raconte aussi les regards qu'elle doit subir parce qu'aux yeux de certains, elle reste une étrangère... Qui est-elle vraiment?

The ABA Journal serves the legal profession. Qualified recipients are lawyers and judges, law students, law librarians and associate members of the American Bar Association.

This series of bibliographical references is one of the most important tools for research in modern and contemporary French literature. No other bibliography represents the scholarly activities and publications of these fields as completely.

This study examines all aspects of migration, its different flows and types, such as economic, forced and ethnic, as well as its impact on economics, demography and social and cultural life. National policies on integration and naturalisation, and how they are conditioned are examined and compared. From a variety of sources (maps, statistics, first person accounts of migration life, novels, films and surveys), a web of causes and effects emerges, depicting migrant life today. In this way, the reader gains an overview and the beginning of a deeper understanding of this complex subject.

Raphaël déteste l'école, surtout les jours où il a cours de français avec madame Grivet, la remplaçante de sa prof préférée, mademoiselle Laurent. Avec ses copains, il décide de lui faire la vie dure. Une escalade entre le chahut et les mauvaises blagues commence.

« De lui, je n'ai vu que quelques photos, celles qu'il partage sur le net. Mais il n'en dit pas beaucoup sur sa vie ; j'imagine une histoire folle... Et si tout cela était trop parfait pour être vrai ? Si son profil n'était qu'un masque ? Pourtant, sur chaque photo, j'ai l'impression que ses yeux me sourient... »

Medicaid is the single largest public health insurer in the United States, covering upwards of 70 million Americans. Crucially, Medicaid is also an intergovernmental program that yokes poverty to federalism: the federal government determines its broad contours, while states have tremendous discretion over how Medicaid is designed and implemented. Where some locales are generous and open handed, others are tight-fisted and punitive. In Fragmented Democracy, Jamila Michener demonstrates the consequences of such disparities for democratic citizenship. Unpacking how federalism transforms Medicaid beneficiaries' interpretations of government and structures their participation in politics, the book examines American democracy from the vantage point(s) of those who are living in or near poverty, (disproportionately) Black or Latino, and reliant on a federated government for vital resources.
