The Love of a Rogue is book three in The Heart of a Duke Series by Christi Caldwell. Although this is in a series, it can be read as a stand alone story. However, I strongly recommend the reader indulges and begins at the beginning. These characters are woven throughout her books and come together in a beautiful tapestry.

The December deluge. Record rain. A drought buster. Any and all of those descriptions only begin to tell the story of what happened at Rogue Farms in December of 2015. A series of winter storms rocked Northwest Oregon for weeks, dumping record amounts of rain in the Willamette Valley and heavy snow in the Cascades. Mudslides closed roads and sent houses tumbling down slopes.

A sexy billionaire romance. "My name is Aubrey. I've finally received my happy ever after with Luciano, my hot Italian billionaire. We make love all the time and life is going smoothly. I don't ever want things to change. "Then came the murder, and Luciano became the prime suspect. The resulting investigation brought to light some secrets of his past that made me question whether I really knew Luciano or not - is he really a killer, or has he been framed? Still, at least I have Luciano's newfound brother, Dayton, to rely on. He's sweet, has a great body, and seems to understand me. He's just like Luciano used to be before things started to go wrong. "No, I can't fall for Dayton. I just can't..." WARNING - Contains scenes of a sexual nature, some violence and occasional use of bad language.

American patriot Quintin Blackthorne and his half-Indian, half-brother Devon Blackthorne are bound by blood, but torn apart by choice. They're swept from Savannah's ballrooms to Revolutionary War battlefields. But with the women they love, they learn that the faithful heart could overcome even the fortunes of war.

Lorraine London is a beautiful waif whose stepfather has sold her to a tavern keeper with a harridan of a wife. She is rescued from the tavern by a roguish gun runner, whose love sweeps her off her feet and Elaine bolted. Her feet scrambled zigzag towards the main door avoiding the general clutter of furniture she knew was there. But the man didn't have her advantage in the dark. From behind her, she heard a thump followed by a muted curse. Elaine hoped that gained her the precious seconds she needed to escape from the house and the vile clutches of this dangerous intruder. Once outside, she would bring the whole block down on him with her ear splitting screaming! She reached the door, turned the knob, pulled at it. A slice of light from the hallway streamed in. Yes! Bang! The door closed in her face, and she, slammed against it. No...! No. No! Hopes dashed, fear hammered against her breast. She grappled to draw back the air that had left her at the impact. It seemed to her as though the intruder had pitched his entire weight after her to cut her flight. Hands barred to her sides, Elaine tried fighting his hold with her meagre strength—all useless. She was jammed between the door and this large man twice her size. To top it all off, this unproductive tussle was putting a serious constraint on her lungs already depleted of air. She would have to say something, somehow try to persuade this man to let her go. "Please.. Y.. You wouldn't find anything here. There's nothing of va..value." A hard thrust of his lean hips against the plush elope with her true love, and takes her sister's place at the altar. It's not even the match that was made... Perched on the lowest branch of his family tree, Max has relied on charm and cunning to survive. But an unexpected stroke of luck gives him an outside chance at a dukedom—and which Tate sister he weds hardly seems to matter. But could it be the perfect match? Married or not, Bianca is determined to protect her family's prosperous ceramics business, even when Max shows an affinity for it—not to mention a dangerous ability to intrigue and tempt Bianca herself. And when Max realizes how beautiful and intelligent and desirable Bianca is, he'll have to prove he's no rogue, but the passionately devoted husband she craves...

"Rich with subplot, historical detail and beautifully descriptive writing that keeps the pages turning until the delightfully unconventional happy ending."—NPR An Indie Next/LibraryReads pick! An Apple Must Listen Audiobook for September! A lady must have money and an army of her own if she is to win a revolution—but first, she must pit her wits against the wiles of an irresistible rogue bent on wrecking her plans...and her heart. Lady Lucie is fuming. She and her band of Oxford suffragists have finally scraped together enough capital to control one of London's major publishing houses, with one purpose: to use it in a coup against Parliament. But who could have predicted that the one person standing between her and success is her old nemesis and London's undisputed lord of sin, Lord Ballentine? Or that he would be willing to hand over the reins for an outrageous price—a night in her bed. Lucie tempts Tristan like no other woman, burning him up with her fierceness and determination every time they clash. But as their battle of wills and words fans the flames of long-smoldering devotion, the silver-tongued seducer runs the risk of becoming caught in his own snare. As Lucie tries to out-maneuver Tristan in the boardroom and the bedchamber, she soon discovers there's truth in what the poets say: all is fair in love and war...

One man's death will change the future. Only two people can save him - if they have the courage to trust each other. Elizabeth Barritt fought hard for the life she has, finally putting the ugly memories of a childhood trapped in the foster care system behind her. She has the chance to move forward, to reach out for a new, exciting future, surrounded by the art that is her passion. All she has to do is take the first step. Enter Jackson Kane, who bursts into her life, literally out of thin air. He is a time traveler, on the hunt for a rogue agent. Colliding with Elizabeth is not on his agenda, as much as she intrigues him. When Kane is injured protecting Elizabeth from that agent, she makes a decision that will change her life, in ways she can't even begin to grasp. She takes him home. Once he is healed enough to travel, Kane goes after the agent, chasing him back to war-torn London. But his journey back takes a sideways turn, forcing Elizabeth to make another choice. She follows him into the past, to help him stop one man from changing their future. Together, they learn to trust. What they don't expect is the connection between them - a connection so strong they can't fight it, even as they try. Because how can it work, when their lives are centuries apart? *Includes an exclusive preview of First Breath, Book Two of the Love in Time series.

The fifth Lost Lords novel “delivers captivating characters, an impeccably realized Regency setting, and a thrilling plot rich in action and adventure” (Booklist, starred review). Even the most proper young lady yearns for adventure. But when the very well-bred Miss Sarah Clarke-Townsend impulsively takes the place of her pregnant twin, it puts her own life at risk. If the kidnapers after her sister discover they’ve abducted Sarah instead, she will surely pay with her life . . . Rob Carmichael survived his disastrous family by turning his back on his heritage and becoming a formidable Bow Street Runner with a talent for rescuing damsels in distress. But Sarah is one damsel who is equal to whatever comes. Whether racing across Ireland with her roguish rescuer or throwing herself into his arms, she challenges Rob at every turn. "Putney's reputation as one of the finest writers of Regency romance is well deserved. She never shies away from different plots or atypical characters and writes wildly exciting adventure romances. She's done it all again in the marvelous, emotional and thrilling fifth book in the Lost Lords series."—RT Book Reviews (Top Pick) Praise for Mary Jo Putney and the Lost Lords series "Romance at its best!"—Julia Quinn "Intoxicating, romantic and utterly ravishing. . ."—Eloisa James "Putney's endearing characters and warm-hearted stories never fail to inspire and delight."—Sabrina Jeffries "Adventure, passion and pure reading pleasure!"—Jo Beverley "No one writes historical romance better."—Cathy Maxwell

Once upon a time in Mayfair a group of wallflowers formed a secret society with goals that had absolutely nothing to do with matrimony. Their most troublesome obstacle? Rogues! They call her Beastly Beatrice. Wallflower Lady Beatrice Bentley longs to remain in the wilds of Cornwall to complete her etymological dictionary. Too bad her brother's Gothic mansion is under renovation. How can she work with an annoyingly arrogant and too-handsome rogue swinging a hammer nearby? Rogue. Scoundrel. Call him anything you like as long as you pay him. Navy man

Stamford Wright is leaving England soon and renovating Thornhill House is just a job. It's not about the duke's bookish sister or her fiery copper hair. Or the etymology lessons the prim-yet-alluring lady insists on giving him. Or the forbidden things he'd love to teach her. They say never mix business with pleasure. But when Beatrice and Ford aren't arguing, they're kissing. Sometimes temptation proves too strong to resist...even if the cost is a heart.

A man without scars never had to fight for something he believed in. A new relationship takes time and effort. A new relationship with Orlando de la Pena takes a whole lot more. As a Dom, Rogue knows what he wants, but Orlando refuses to fit neatly into the box labeled &'submissive'. He's feisty, demanding and far too pretty for his own good. Orlando loves Rogue and he's learning to love The Wyverns, but he hates being stuck out in the desert. Finding a niche in the world of bikes and fierce warriors is difficult, and Orlando's impatience gets the better of him. He walks out into the desert and runs in to an antisocial diamondback. Rogue has more than one problem to deal with. The Longhorns MC issues a challenge for territory. The Bellazi cartel is out for Wyvern blood. The Wyverns are under siege, and Rogue has to work out how to save not just Orlando, but all of them.
