A Hispanic family's preparation for dinner is presented in easy words in both Spanish and English. Warm illustrations depict an affectionate family enjoying their daily routine. This is the first book in Pat Mora's My Family/Mi Familia series, a four-book collection of easy-read bilingual books.

In this counting book a starfish with five arms illustrates the number five, eight reindeer the figure eight, eighteen crayons the number eighteen, and so on.

Part of Milet's new line of bilingual board books, the series focusing on numbers features a two-page spread on each featured number, with a large image on the right and four smaller images on the left of objects in quantities of the number. The images are photographs embellished with illustration, so they are fresh and creative but still simple and clear. Below each image is the word for the object in English and the second language in large, bold text. Children can explore the concept of numbers and practice counting while they learn the words for objects around them in two languages.

Vibrant illustrations captioned in English and Turkish present the numbers from one to ten, as well as the names of a variety of familiar items.

Illustrations captioned in English and Arabic present the different things that happen during the course of the day, like brushing teeth, playing, and eating breakfast.
