offers an introduction to the standard concert repertoire, but also gives equal treatment to world music, rock and popular music, and jazz, to give students a thorough introduction to today's rich musical world. Through lively narratives and innovative activities, the student is given the tools to form a personal appreciation and understanding of the power of music. The book is paired with an audio compilation featuring listening guides with streaming audio, short texts on special topics, and sample recordings and notation to illustrate basic concepts in music. There is not a CD-set, but the companion website with streaming audio is provided at no additional charge.

Listen to the music. Hear the elements. Expand your playlist. Created for today's students, Listen To This, 3/e provides readers with the tools to listen to music, hear the elements, and ultimately expand their musical horizons. Readers are encouraged to explore history, culture, and musical styles through active listening, not just through passive reading. By concentrating on the elements of music, students develop the ability to connect earlier music with their own music. Praised for its engaging writing style, flexible format, listening-oriented approach and focus on musical elements, Listen To This will

"The Educated Listener" gives professors the freedom to customize the material based on what is most relevant to their courses and allows students to engage deeply with classical music from the Middle Ages right up to the present day. Students will become conversant with music terminology, enabling them to talk intelligently about music with colleagues, family members, and friends. Students will absorb and internalize this knowledge and it will enrich their lives. Section One of the text serves as a prelude, educating readers about music vocabulary, the instruments and ensembles of classical music, and the concert-going experience. Subsequent sections discuss the history of music from the Middle Ages to the present. Each time period features one chapter on forms, styles, and performance and compositional techniques, one chapter on various musical genres, and one chapter on composers of that time period. Professors are free to select the topics most important for their students, and then pair the written material with musical selections from the vast amount of online options, thus creating their own playlists. Well organized and comprehensive in scope, "The Educated Listener" is an ideal textbook for courses in music appreciation or music history. Jaren Hinckley earned his D.M. from The Florida State University. Dr. Hinckley has taught Music History courses for over fifteen years. He currently teaches music history at Brigham Young University. Most importantly, he loves music and wants to share that love of music with the entire world. He is also a performer and a composer. He is the professor of clarinet at BYU and the clarinetist with both the Orpheus Wind Quintet and the piano/clarinet duo Hduo. He is a member of the Utah Chamber Orchestra and the Orchestra at Temple Square. Dr. Hinckley has performed at music festivals, conventions, and conservatories in Austria, Brazil, Mexico, Canada, Italy, Belgium, Wales, and Great Britain. His compositions include works for clarinet and various chamber groups.

Music Appreciation for the Elementary Grades: Book 1 will introduce children to seven different composers, dating from 1685 to 1828 (Bach, Handel, Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, Paganini and Schubert). Each composer's childhood and adult life are vividly described in individual biographies. Every important incident is mentioned and every detail of the stories is true. Each book contains written music and delightful
