The Advanced Reading-Writing Connection will help you become a more effective reader and writer. You will learn, in a nutshell, that good readers (1) recognize a main point and (2) recognize the support for that point, and that good writers (1) make a point and (2) support the point.

The series helps students gain insight into how academic text is organized and how to read effectively. Making Connections Intermediate is a reading skills and strategies book that prepares students for college-level reading. It has six high-interest thematic units, each with multiple readings. The readings are written in an accessible academic discourse style, providing practice for intermediate-level students who will eventually need to access authentic academic text.

Multi-Tier Systems of Support (MTSS) is a proven, research-based, problem-solving process to help struggling learners succeed. Having been effectively implemented in many elementary schools in recent years, MTSS is gaining popularity as a systematic way to address the needs of underachieving students who are struggling with reading at the middle school level. This reference guide is designed to provide educators with critical information about MTSS as a framework for reading instruction in middle school, and give teachers practical techniques to implement within the general education classroom.
